A trip to the mountains

Last summer my family went to Zakopane for a week. We travelled by train and the journey took six hours. We stayed in a small wooden house near the forest.

On the first day it was raining, so we visited a museum and ate hot soup in a restaurant. On Tuesday the weather was beautiful and we climbed to a mountain lake called Morskie Oko. It was a long walk, but the view was amazing. My little sister was tired, so Dad carried her on his back for the last kilometre.

On Thursday we took the cable car to Kasprowy Wierch. It was cold at the top and we saw clouds below us! I bought a postcard for my best friend. It was the best holiday ever and I'm going to go back next year.
